It's On My Heart

The hills are alive with the sights, sounds, and smells of spring. This area is bathed in beauty as everything bursts forth about us. How blessed we are to minister the life of Our Lord Jesus to all who live, work and play in the Texas Hill Country.

Last Lord's Day, Easter Sunday, was special. We began the day with a wonderful gathering at the sunrise service on our gorgeous grounds at La Ventana. One twenty-five year old young man made public his profession of faith in Jesus. Two Holy Spirit blessed services followed here at the church campus. The Sunday School hour was also a celebration of the resurrection of Our Savior. It was such a joy to join you in worship and witness.

...pray and witness...
...serve and share...
...gather together...

Now...we step into the future with full faith that He who has begun a good work in us will continue that work in the days ahead. Soon our pastor search committee will be in place and at work. I believe God is preparing a special shepherd for His people in this congregation. I am praying that He will prepare us to be faithful stewards of His pastoral gift to His church here at Marble Falls First Baptist.

Let it all begin today as we pray and witness. Let it continue this week as we serve and share. May we all gather on next Lord's Day to express our love through our gifts, our presence, our prayer and our praise.

Pastor Jackson

A Word from Weldon

I always enjoy the Sunrise Service on Easter Sunday. It is such a touching reminder of the day Jesus rose from the dead. We had a wonderful time up on the hill at La Ventana Sunday and the Spirit of God was evident. Even though the fog prevented our viewing the sun come up, that is not why we were there. We came to celebrate our Living Lord Jesus Christ! Sunday will always be one of my fondest memories.

Thank you for the Eggcellent help at the Eggstravaganza

There is no way that words can adequately express appreciation to every person and group that helped make this huge event so eggs-cellent!

Because of your donations of supplies and time, hundreds of families of the Highland Lakes region were touched for the Kingdom of Christ, our Resurrected Savior. Please be assured that I am eternally grateful for your support of this ever growing event.
